How are applicants considered for a scholarship for the program?
Applicants (parent/guardian) must truthfully complete the household information section on the application. Additional information may be requested/verification of household income required.

Should participants bring any spending money for the program?
It is suggested that participants bring $40 - $60 for various opportunities that may arise to buy food and/or to shop in and around campus.

Am I eligible to attend SCEEP?
To be eligible for CEDO camps, including SCEEP, participants must be permanent residents or citizens of the United States.
How do participants get to Ann Arbor?
Participants are responsible for their own transportation to and from the Detroit/Ann Arbor area. The Engineering OnRamp team will request the travel plans of all participants and will coordinate bus depot, train station, and airport arrivals/departures as applicable.

Where do participants send any non-electronic Engineering OnRamp materials (as needed)?
Send your non-electronic materials to:

Engineering OnRamp
Center for Engineering Diversity and Outreach
1221 Beal Avenue, LEC 1112
University of Michigan
Ann Arbor, MI 48109

Can participants leave campus while in Ann Arbor?
Participants are required to remain on campus and in the care of our facilitators at ALL times. There may be occasions when participants will have an opportunity to visit other parts of UM and Ann Arbor with SCEEP staff present.

Where will participants stay throughout the duration of the program?
Participants will be housed at Bursley Residence Hall on North Campus.

Will participants have a roommate?
Participants will be housed in pairs and are randomly assigned a roommate. On occasion, a program may have an odd number of participants, in which case one individual in the cohort will room alone.

What will participants eat?
The majority of meals for participants will be provided through M|Dining in the Bursley Hall cafeteria. Some meals may be on other parts of the campus and are covered by the program.

Are there facilities made available for participants for exercise/physical activity?
Visits to the athletic and recreational centers on campus are not part of SCEEP. We recognize that some participants like to exercise and stay active, so numerous outdoor/recreational activities will be built into the program schedule.
Is there a participant dress code?

Participant dress code is the following:

- Classes
  - Business Casual Attire – e.g. slacks, blue jeans, shorts with belt loops, collared shirts, loafers, tennis shoes, skirts
- Recreational Activities
  - Casual Attire – e.g. blue jeans, t-shirts, shorts, tennis shoes
- Closing Program, Conferences, Corporate Corners, and Field Trips
  - Professional Attire – e.g. shirts with ties or blouses, dress slacks or skirts/dresses

All participants should wear comfortable shoes as there is a lot of walking during the course of the program. More information on the dress code will be shared during the Family Conference Call which will be held a week before each program.
