Faculty Spirit Award

Criteria
The MLK Spirit Award for Faculty recognizes North Campus faculty whose scholarship, teaching, and/or service exemplify the leadership and vision of Dr. King. Nominees may lead or inspire students, colleagues, and the broader community to develop and utilize their talents to advance social justice. We encourage nominators to think about the nominee's work, including within the context of the pandemic and our reignited sense of urgency to address root causes of social injustice. All faculty members in the North Campus Community are eligible for this recognition.

2020 Winning Submission

Essay Prompt
In 100-300 words, please respond to the following questions:

- How has the faculty member demonstrated their commitment to social justice, diversity, equity and inclusion? What have they done to change the department, unit, or university culture to be more inclusive and equitable? How have they positively impacted the campus community or the wider community via University of Michigan coursework, special projects, sponsoring independent study, research, or advising student organizations? What have they done outside of their role at UM that may be creating social change?

Staff Spirit Award

Criteria
The MLK Spirit Award for Staff recognizes North Campus staff work, initiatives, and values exemplify the leadership and vision of Dr. King. We encourage nominators to think about the nominee's work, including within the context of the pandemic and our reignited sense of urgency to seek social justice. All staff members in the North Campus Community are eligible for this recognition.

2020 Winning Submission

Essay Prompt
In 100-300 words, please respond to the following questions:

- How has the staff member demonstrated their commitment to social justice, diversity, equity and inclusion? What have they done to change the department, unit, or university
Student Spirit Award

Criteria
The MLK Spirit Award for Students recognizes North Campus students whose academics and/or community engagement exemplify the leadership and vision of Dr. King. Nominees may lead or inspire peers, faculty/staff, and the broader community to develop or utilize their talents to advance social justice. We encourage nominators to think about the nominee's work, including within the context of the pandemic and our reignited sense of urgency to address root causes of social injustice. All students in the North Campus Community are eligible for this recognition.

2020 Winning Submission

Essay Prompt
In 100-300 words, please respond to the following questions:

- How has the student demonstrated their commitment to social justice, diversity, equity, and inclusion? What have they done to change the department, unit, or university culture to be more inclusive and equitable? How have they positively impacted the campus community or wider community via academic or extracurricular activities? What have they done outside of their role at UM that may be creating social change?

Student Organization Spirit Award

Criteria
The MLK Spirit Award for student organizations recognizes North Campus student groups whose culture, values, and activities exemplify the leadership and vision of Dr. King. Nominees may lead or inspire peers, faculty/staff, and the broader community to develop or utilize their talents to advance social justice. We encourage nominators to think about the nominee's work, including within the context of the pandemic and our reignited sense of urgency to address root causes of social injustice. All registered student organizations are eligible for this recognition.

*Awards will be given to student organizations of 19 members or less and one student organization with 20 members or more.

2020 Winning Submission
Essay Prompt

In 100-300 words, please respond to the following questions:

- How has the student organization demonstrated its commitment to social justice, diversity, equity and inclusion? What have they done to change the department, unit, or university culture to be more inclusive and equitable? How has it positively impacted the campus community or the wider community via outreach, education, special projects or student member development? What have they done outside of their role at UM that may be creating social change?